

Chinese Cities: Internal Issues and External Perspectives

A one-day workshop for City, Culture and Society

Organisers: Urban Research Plaza, Osaka City University &
Middlesex University Business School

Date: 9.30am-5.00pm, Friday, 1st July 2011

Venue: Middlesex University, Hendon Campus, the Boardroom

Provisional Programme

9.30 am: Registration and coffee

10.00am: Welcome from Professor Richard Croucher, Associate Dean Research, Middlesex University Business School

10.15am: Social exclusion in Chinese cities in the Twentieth Century: Anne Daguerre and Elena Vacchelli

11.15am: Coffee break

11.30am: Migrant workers in China: social exclusion, protection and representation: Richard Croucher and Lilian Miles

12.30pm: Lunch

1.30pm: The Macao Formula: key to four hundred years of successful interactions between China and the West: Professor Fok Kai Cheong

2.30pm: Cities, labour migration and social exclusion: comparative reflections on Europe and China: David Etherington

3.30pm: Tea break

3.45pm: Export-led growth in China and South Africa, two distinct journeys: Michael Brookes

4.45pm: Closing Remarks: Professors Hiroshi Okano and Richard Croucher.

5.00pm: Workshop closes.